This Summer In Worship

As we make the transition into summer at Central, we're also going to be making a transition in worship themes. On Sunday, May 20th we'll begin a 10-week series focusing on the Sermon on the Mount. The Sermon on the Mount (from Matthew 5-7) might be the most important body of teaching in the history of the world. It's full of easy-to-understand, practical suggestions from Christ himself about how to live an authentic and faithful Christian life.

And, even though we've already recognized our graduates, we'll begin our study by focusing on what Jesus has to say to graduates and other people just starting out in life. So, if you know anyone who's making a transition into a new stage of life—a high school or college graduate, or someone who's just making a fresh start in life—May 20th would be a perfect Sunday to invite a guest to join you as we start our summer series.

I know a lot of you will have many reasons to travel this summer, but when you're in town, I hope you'll be at Central as we talk about the very practical things that Jesus taught about what it means to be a good person and live a fulfilling life.

Happy summer. And see you Sunday.

Matt

Bridging the Gap Summer Lunch Program

BTG staff along with volunteers will serve a balanced lunch and provide activities to 50 children at Ruth Hill and 100 Children at CJ Smith Park Daily. This program was put in place to make sure lunch is available to students who typically rely on school lunches during the school year as their main source of nutrition. In addition to the lunch each week. BTG is planning to give each child (the first week) a bag with fun treats in it, such as, coloring books, crayons, beach balls, sidewalk chalk, word search and more.

Here is how you can help!

1. CBC is signed up to serve the lunches at both locations and do activities with the children June 4th-8th. If you would like to volunteer to help serve and provide entertainment that week please contact Katie Faison.
2. Visit our sign up genius or contact Katie Faison to sign up for things still needed for lunches throughout the summer and the treat bags that will be given out the first week.

LAVINIA BARRON BOOK GROUP

Monday, May 14 at 6:30 PM, the Lavinia Barron Book Group will meet at the Newnan Utilities Cabin at 1 Young Ave. in Newnan for a covered dish supper. The book for discussion will be "The Lemon Tree: An Arab, a Jew, and the Heart of the Middle East" by Sandy Tolan.

Our annual family picnic is Wednesday, May 16th, at 5:00 PM. The picnic will be held at the Newnan Utilities Park. We ask that each family bring a side dish or dessert. The church will provide hamburgers and hotdogs. I am looking for volunteers that could help with things such as cooking and transporting tables and chairs to and from the park. Please contact me if you would be able to help: kfaison@centralbaptistnewnan.org.
