Central's Funniest Home Videos
and Thanksgiving Bring-A-Dish
Wednesday, November 14

We've already received some great video submissions for this fun evening together, and several of you have mentioned that you're planning to bring something by the office, but time is running out! Go search your videos and bring in your best ASAP because October 28 is the deadline for submissions.

Submit your video clips to Steve--digital files on a flash drive are best, but we can access CDs, DVDs, and even VHS! Please include your name and a description with each submission (what it is and where to find it) on CD/DVD or cued to the exact spot on tapes. Contact Steve with any questions: 336-809-4047 scothran@centralbaptistnewnan.org

PASTOR'S PEN

Building on the Past, Building for the Future

We continue to make exciting progress on our building project. Our facilities planning team is meeting regularly with our project managers, architects and construction team to fine tune timelines and discuss final design details. We are currently on track to break ground as anticipated early in 2019, and there's a strong likelihood that you'll begin to see activity to prepare the construction site by late November.

As excitement about these next steps continues to build, we're also working toward meeting the financial obligations associated with this project. As you know, we're off to a great start with early fundraising, and those of you who were able to enjoy the kick-off dinner for our capital campaign know how important it is for each of us to give generously if we are to reach our fundraising goals.

Our deacons are leading our pledge drive during the month of October. If your family hasn't already made your commitment to the "Building on the Past, Building for the Future" campaign, I hope you'll plan to do so by November 1st. You can expect to hear from your deacon about how to make that pledge.

When all of us give together we can accomplish great things for our church and great things for God. Please prayerfully consider how you can do your part.

It's an exciting time to be at Central. See you Sunday.

Matt
