SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

June 19, 2022

10:55 am

The Meditation

Like Elijah, we seek God in the great and powerful, in the roaring wind or fire.

But we find God in the silence of truth, in the stillness of love, in the quiet which changes things.

Attune us this day to hear your voice, O God.

The Prelude

Speak, O Lord

arr. Payne

The Westminster Chimes

The Welcome and Call to Worship

Rev. Katie Faison

God is present in the grandeur and power of creation!

But, it is enough, for us, that God comes in a soft, summer shower.

God is present in the many wonderful blessings of our lives!

But, it is enough, for us, that God comes through a gentle touch.

God is present in the sounds of worship: the organ, the singing, and proclamation!

But, it is enough, for us, that God wraps us in the silence of grace.

Come to worship with the expectation of God's presence.

We watch and listen for God's presence in this holy hour, on this holy ground.

*The Hymn No. 307

All Creatures of Our God and King
(Stanzas 1, 3, and 5 only)

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

*The Litany

Based on Psalm 42 and 43

Mr. Tim Whitehead

As the deer pants for streams of water,
so we long for you, O God.

We thirst for you, the living God.

When can we come and stand in your presence?

Through each day, the Lord pours his unfailing love upon us,

Through each night we sing his songs,

praying to the God who gives us life.

Send out your light and your truth, O God.

Let them guide us to Your holy mountain,

to the place where you live.

Then we shall go to the altar of God, the source of all our joy.

*The Gloria Patri No. 705

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.*

The Children's Sermon

The Doxology No. 706

*Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Him, all creatures here below;
praise Him, above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen*

The Special Music

He Hideth My Soul

arr. Krogstad

The Chancel Choir, Ms. Andrea Johnson, director

A wonderful Savior is Jesus my Lord, a wonderful Savior to me.

He hideth my soul in the cleft of the rock, where rivers of pleasure I see.

He hideth my soul in the cleft of the rock that shadows a dry, thirsty land.

He hideth my life in the depths of his love, and covers me there with his hand...

When clothed in His brightness, transported I rise to meet Him in clouds of the sky,

His perfect salvation, His wonderful love, I'll shout with the millions on high...

The Sermon

The Sound of Silence

Rev. Sapp

1 Kings 19:1-15

(pew Bible p. 555)

The Hymn of Response No. 384

Speak to My Heart

HOLCOMB

(Stanza 1 only)

Speak to my heart, Lord Jesus, speak that my soul may hear;

Speak to my heart, Lord Jesus, calm every doubt and fear.

Speak to my heart, oh, speak to my heart, Speak to my heart, I pray;

Yielded and still, seeking Thy will, oh, speak to my heart today.

The Benediction

Psalm 22:19-28

But you, Lord, do not be far from me. You are my strength; come quickly to help me. Deliver me from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs. Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save me from the horns of the wild oxen. I will declare your name to my people; in the assembly I will praise you. You who fear the Lord, praise him! All you descendants of Jacob, honor him! Revere him, all you descendants of Israel! For he has not despised or scorned the suffering of the afflicted one; he has not hidden his face from him but has listened to his cry for help. From you comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly; before those who fear you I will fulfill my vows. The poor will eat and be satisfied; those who seek the Lord will praise him—may your hearts live forever! All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him, for dominion belongs to the Lord and he rules over the nations.

1 Kings 19:1-15

Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So may the gods do to me and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow.” Then he was afraid; he got up and fled for his life and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there. But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die, “It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors.” Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, “Get up and eat.” He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones and a jar of water. He ate and drank and lay down again. The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, “Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you.” He got up and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God. At that place he came to a cave and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” He answered, “I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts, for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.” He said, “Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by.” Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind, and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake, and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire, and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” He answered, “I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts, for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.” Then the Lord said to him, “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram.
