The Meditation

*It is by God's grace that we gather for worship and it is by God's grace that our lives are changed.
God's grace is active and abundant.
By Your Holy Spirit, enliven our worship, O God.
May we receive Your grace and extend grace to others.*

The Welcome and Call to Worship

Rev. Matt Sapp

Come, worship and praise God together!

For God is great, and worthy of our praise!

Tell stories of God's power and majesty,

God's mighty acts throughout history:

for God is great, and worthy of our praise!

Remember the compassion God has shown toward us;

God's mercy and unfailing love, generation after generation:

for God is great, and worthy of our praise!

Pass these stories along to our children and grandchildren,

so that they, too, may come to know and love God.

For God is great, and worthy of our praise!

Psalm 82

Mr. Ben Robuck

Shout to the Lord, you people of God.

Bring your petitions before the judgment seat.

Worship the one who hears our cries,
rescues the perishing, and lifts up the lowly.

Call to the Lord, you disciples of Christ.

Proclaim your case before God's holy council.

Worship the one who heeds our pleas,
frees the captives, and sustains the widows and the orphans.

Sing to the Lord, you children of the Most High.

Declare your need before our righteous judge.

Worship the one who responds to our needs,
heals our wounds, and fills our world with light.

The Gloria Patri No. 705

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.*

Psalm 89:1-4; 15-18

I will sing of the Lord's great love forever; with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known through all generations. I will declare that your love stands firm forever, that you have established your faithfulness in heaven itself. You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant, 'I will establish your line forever and make your throne firm through all generations.'"

Blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you, who walk in the light of your presence, Lord. They rejoice in your name all day long; they celebrate your righteousness. For you are their glory and strength, and by your favor you exalt our horn. Indeed, our shield belongs to the Lord, our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Genesis 22:1-14

Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied. Then God said, "Take your son, your only son, whom you love—Isaac—and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you." Early the next morning Abraham got up and loaded his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. He said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you." Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together, Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, "Father?" "Yes, my son?" Abraham replied. "The fire and wood are here," Isaac said, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?" Abraham answered, "God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." And the two of them went on together. When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. But the angel of the Lord called out to him from heaven, "Abraham! Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied. "Do not lay a hand on the boy," he said. "Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son." Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place The Lord Will Provide. And to this day it is said, "On the mountain of the Lord it will be provided."
